

The Campo Marzio is a precious gem within the Palazzo Magnani, an eighteenth-century building in the heart of Rome. This was formerly the home to the Roman Amateur Actors' Academy. The building bears witness to its times: framed façade and arch-truss windows with stucco plaster, balconies with iron railings and, inside, an archway that leads into a courtyard with a beautiful classical fountain. The rooms and suites bear bold tones and defined lines, welcoming guests into an atmosphere combining quite perfectly ancient and modern taste.

Known as the Liquoreria, this is an exclusive boutique dedicated to the sale of carefully selected and niche products. To enhance and stimulate the atmosphere, tastings, masterclasses and training courses are organised regularly allowing guests to appreciate and understand more about the products and also have the opportunity to meet some of the numerous artisan producers. Thanks to the Cordiale and the enthusiastic response from customers, the Liqueur Bar has a jovial and sparkling air to it.
