

PALAZZO DAMA

a member of AG HOTELS

One of Rome's most exquisite and enchanting palaces has opened its doors to begin a new chapter in its regal history as Palazzo Dama: a magnificent hotel that redefines the capital city's standards of luxury. A short distance from Piazza del Popolo, Palazzo Dama offers guests the opportunity to experience Rome in a historic villa with the hospitality, ambience and amenities of a refined 5-star hotel. Built next to the banks of the Tiber, this elegant Liberty villa was once the residence of the noble Italian Malaspina family. Here, the Marquises welcomed diplomats, aristocrats and the cultural elite of past centuries.

Accommodation

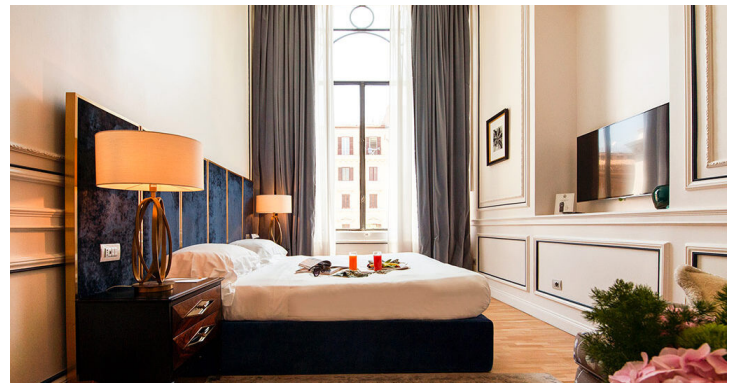

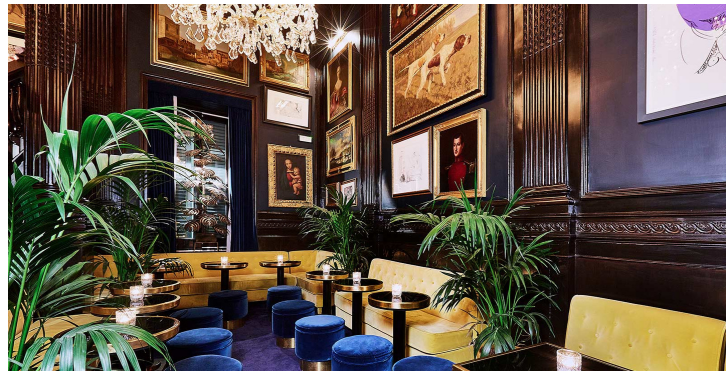

In each of the 29 suites and guestrooms, refinement meets comfort, creating an intimate oasis where guests may relax and recharge. Each environment has been designed to offer a unique experience of contemporary style. Double deluxe, junior, garden, executive and drama suits available.

Events

Palazzo Dama is the ideal setting for stylish social and business celebrations that range from intimate brunches, dinners, food and wine tastings, private fashion shows and product launches to spectacular weddings, engagement parties, networking events and meetings. The elegant Bow Window Room overlooking the garden and pool is perfect for accommodating these events and the Raspoutine Club for private late-night events.

Dining

Pacifico is the iconic restaurant brand of the celebrated Chef Jaime Pesaque. The Chef chose Palazzo Dama as the place in Rome to debut his sophisticated Peruvian-Nikkei cuisine, making this his second restaurant in Italy following his successful launch in Milan. Pacifico serves lunch and dinner in the restaurant and, in season, outdoors in the hotel's poolside garden. A unique food proposal, full of vivid personality and delicious ingredient combinations.
